Synopsis

HORIZONS is a complete elementary French program that makes learning French easier through its step-by-step skill-building methodology, flexible and accessible approach to grammar and new vocabulary, and creative and sophisticated coverage of Francophone culture. Through varied interactive activities and clear grammar explanations, the text helps students communicate effectively in French while culturally connecting them to the Francophone world. HORIZONS features a clear, easy-to-follow structure that is ideal for instructors with any level of teaching experience. HORIZONS carefully guides students Competence by Competence, through their first year of elementary French.

vocabulary annotations throughout the text teach you how to use cognates and easy-to-recognize word patterns to help create your own personalized vocabulary lists. iLrn includes the Share It! function. Share It! also allows you to create text or voice comments and rate your classmates's uploaded material. The Lecture et Composition section in each chapter helps you become a better writer through a range of process-based writing tasks. Grammar review sections called Résumé de grammaire are located at the end of each chapter summarizing new grammar from the chapter on a two-page spread to make for easy review.

Joan Manley is Professor Emeritus from the University of Texas at El Paso. During her 33 years as a faculty member, she gave over 100 workshops and conference presentations and authored 50 journal articles. She was a trainer and tester of the Oral Proficiency Interview, which led to the current emphasis on skill building and proficiency as exemplified in teaching programs such as HORIZONS. Stuart Smith received her degrees and her first training and experience in teaching at the University of Texas at Austin. She has been teaching at Austin Community College since 1981 and has been authoring foreign language textbook and textbook materials since 1986. John McMinn is Professor of French and Spanish at Austin Community College, where he has taught since 1986. After doing graduate studies in Romance Linguistics at The University of Texas at Austin, he also worked as an editor of high school and college-level language books. In addition to HORIZONS, he is coauthor of two Spanish textbooks. Marc Andre Prevost received his degrees from The University of Texas at Austin. He taught seven years at The University of Texas at Austin and has been a professor at Austin Community College since 1993. He has coauthored foreign language textbooks since 1986.

Doesn't come with student activity manual in print form you will need to purchase that separately

This book is a waste of money just get the online version from the ilrn site

Easy for beginners and well made. A lot of help with the iLrn website. This is best for just starting out as it progresses slowly. To master the material, there is helpful review sections at the end of each chapter. They build upon one another which is great. I recommend this French book.

Bought this for my college french class, very helpful and easy to use/understand.

It is the book I order paperback with punch holes for a three ring binder. I like it and less expensive than buying from the bookstore.

Definitely satisfies the necessities... It was actually a lot more convenient to buy this with the access code and saved me. Definitely fits the descriptions provided.

didn't have the ilrn. book is fine but I needed the ilrn too.

Wrong isbn, and didn't come with the code
