Elizabeth Lawlor is author of the Discover Nature series of books, which are illustrated by Pat Archer. Pat Archer is an experienced birder and artist living in Connecticut.

To me this is the best of the Discover Nature series. Covers a wide variety of vertebrates, invertebrates, and plant life found in local areas. I learned much that I had not known previously. Great guidebook.

This is an amazing treasure of a book - we have enjoyed learning about nature in our own backyard and enjoy the simple activities.

Great book for learning about common plants and animals with simple activities and suggestions for observing nature. Topics cover trees, wildflowers, vines, galls, squirrels, chipmunks, spiders, earthworms and fungi.
