An Iona Prayer Book

Synopsis

Many worlds meet on the romantic Hebridean island of Iona. With its breathtaking beauty and its ancient saints, it is a place where the material and the spiritual are closely interwoven. Every year, thousands of pilgrims come from all over the world to experience the striking simplicity of worship at its Abbey. This collection of prayers and meditations follows the themes which permeate daily worship in the Abbey, each day having a distinctive focus. Outlines are given for morning, midday and evening prayer to enable you to join your voice, your joys and your concerns with those who pray daily on Iona and with the friends of Iona around the world.

Customer Reviews

Peter Millar is a minister of the Church of Scotland and was formerly Warden at Iona Abbey. He is the author of best-selling "Iona Prayer Book", "Iona Pilgrim Guide" and "Waymarks".

I have enjoyed this prayerbook and like very much the way it is set up to use. It is this book that resulted in my purchasing several other books by Peter Millar.

I love this little book.... only wish it encompassed a year rather than a month. Very different from other devotional or the Book of Common Prayer.

I use the book daily and I share it often as a host gift when we travel. It helps to center one in a sad violent world and it makes me mindful of my visit 12 years ago to the Island of Iona. My only problem with has been that my latest order had to be through 4 separate bookstores so my shipping cost has been tripled. And one of the orders was cancelled for "technical reasons".Sincerely,tg

Delightful

Great book - using it daily

What a treasure this book is. Drawing from many expressions of faith, the prayers and meditations celebrate creation spirituality without falling into "tree-worship." This book is a must for my faith journey, and I recommend it to all who are walking a difficult path.
