Synopsis

Buy a new version of this Connected Casebook and receive ACCESS to the online e-book, practice questions from your favorite study aids, and an outline tool on CasebookConnect, the all in one learning solution for law school students. CasebookConnect offers you what you need most to be successful in your law school classes – portability, meaningful feedback, and greater efficiency. Property Law: Rules, Policies, and Practices, is a hugely successful cases-and-problems book, acclaimed for its textual clarity and socially progressive but evenhanded perspective and its contemporary, up-to-date character, is easily distinguished from other property casebooks through its explanations of the social ramifications of property law; its inclusion of numerous statutes and its emphasis on both statutory interpretation and the interrelationship between common law and statutes and regulation; its comprehensive treatment of public accommodations and fair housing law, current tribal property issues, and property in human bodies; and its use of the problem method to teach legal reasoning and lawyering skills. In its Sixth Edition, three “rising stars” join the book as co-authors. Key Features of the New Edition: New sections on cultural property, environmental law, natural resources, and corporations and other entity property New organization with an attractive and engaging student-friendly format, including new diagrams, pictures, and background material Fully updated with recent issues and cases such as Association for Molecular Pathology v. Myriad Genetics, Inc. (2013) and Koontz v. St. John’s River Water Management Dist. (2013) New chapter on equal protection and due process as well as more materials on RLUIPA (discrimination in zoning laws against churches and other religious entities) New themes, including the emerging impact of climate change on property law CasebookConnect features: ONLINE E-BOOK Law school comes with a lot of reading, so access your enhanced e-book anytime, anywhere to keep up with your coursework. Peter Singer is Ira W. DeCamp Professor of Bioethics at the Center for Human Values, Princeton University. He is author of Animal Liberation, first published in 1975, and is widely credited with triggering the modern animal-rights movement. His Companion to Ethics is one of the most widely used texts in ethics, and Rethinking Life and Death received the 1995 National Book Council's Banjo Award for non-fiction. He was the foundation president of the International Association of Bioethics.

Perfect.

I'm not a fan of reading casebook in general, but this read on property was not too difficult for my summer semester.

It works however it is hard to find a good binder to use with it.

This book doesn't hide the ball--the notes tell you the different ways courts approach the doctrine, and text boxes tell you the factors to consider. Plus the pictures and background of the cases makes it fun to read--well as fun as reading a casebook can be.

This is probably the best textbook you will ever get in law school. Words are bolded, tests are set out in boxes and it's straight forward.

Lots of highlights but not bad and a good price.

Received brand new book as rental, which was a pleasant surprise.

Bolded vocab words. It's written as if people were meant to understand it, which is troubling development in the legal casebook publishing industry.
