Ginger Hubbard, founder of Preparing the Way Ministries, is the author of Don't Make Me Count to Three! and Wise Words for Moms. She is a contributing author to several books and many magazines. She has been interviewed on television and radio shows, including The 700 Club, The Harvest Show, Primary Focus, Family Life Today, Revive our Hearts and Focus on the Family. While Ginger enjoys reading, writing and spending time on Lake Martin with her husband Ronnie, her primary passion in life is to glorify God. Ginger is a veteran home schooling mom of two fabulous children, and stepmom to two much adored sons.

I love this as a tool for helping my children problem solve behavior issues. gives them great verses to support better behavior choices and gives them examples of better ways to react and handle difficult situations. my daughter loves reading it and we use it all the time

I wish I knew about this resource years ago. This is a must have for any mother seeking to raise her children in the Lord. I love the positive enforcement column as well. Great scripture references, wonderful questions to ponder and ask your children. Excellent categories for many issues you deal with daily as you raise and guide your children. This is a must have in our home and I plan to give as a gift for new moms.

Wise Words for Moms is a positive, kind, and biblically accurate way to lead your children in right behaviors. The pamphlet highlights wrong behaviors that should be taken off (and has a scripture to support turning away from that behavior) and then shows the behavior that should be put on (again with scriptural support). Identifying the wrong behavior is even done in a positive, loving manner by encouraging the CHILD to search and evaluate their own hearts. In fact, here are her opening remarks: "REMEMBER: Wise Words are to be spoken with a loving heart and a gentle voice. '[I]f someone is caught in a sin, you who are spiritual should restore him gently.'--Galatians 6:1a" So, please, disregard the bizarre, 1-star reviews. They were obviously written by those who wish to post against strong Christian values. If not for the 1-star reviews by those who clearly did not own, let alone read, the pamphlet, this resource would have 5 stars...much deserved. Unfortunately, misled people posted inaccurate information about a wonderful parenting tool. It is a shame I will not pull the reviews since they are blatantly untruthful. This pamphlet is a wonderful.

I appreciate having this handy reminder on how to Biblically approach different areas of struggle that my children face. It helps to eliminate much frustration on my part bc I used to try and figure out my children's motivation in their wrong doing and render consequences according to their motivation. This is the wrong way to go about discipline. Now I can help my children figure out their own motivations so they can be aware of them in the future and correct themselves and eventually make better choices. So, I am dealing with the heart rather than just dispensing consequences. When you deal with the heart, my opinion is that you arm them for a life time of being kind to others.

I love this guide for finding the appropriate bible verses to fit behavior issues. We are having trouble with our 8 year old telling lies when he doesn't want to get in trouble for not doing what he was told. This is helping a lot. We attend church regularly and he understands our beliefs, so this is a great support for us in helping him learn and grow. Everyone needs guidance and this is a perfect fit for our family. I bought 2 - one to keep in my purse & one to keep at home. (I carry a large purse, so it works - but it is a large calendar size booklet.)

I really appreciate having this handy resource. I haven't been able to use it as effectively as I would like, but I know I will get the hang of it eventually. I have thought of doing something like this myself, but for the price it is worth it to just buy it to me. Nice resource!

This little "calendar" of wise words has been a treasure to me for years! I am a speaker to women and I regularly give these as gifts to the ladies I lead Bible Study with, and they make the best gifts for young moms! I would recommend this 100% of the time for any and all moms! You won't regret this purchase!

I love everything about this flip chart except that it is called "Wise Words for Moms." It could have just as easily been called "Wise Words for Moms and Dads," as both my husband and I are using this in raising up our 4 boys in the Word. That aside, it has been very helpful in our family in showing the connection between our rules/expectations and what the Bible says about how we are to live our lives. I love that there is scripture pointing to both positive (what we are to do) and negative (what we are to avoid) behaviors for each issue. I use it for myself, as well, when I find I'm being quick to anger or disrespectful. Overall, a worthwhile chart.
