Pagan Portals - Hedge Riding

Synopsis

One aspect of hedge witchcraft is engaging in a form of Otherworldly travel called hedge riding. The hedge is the symbolic boundary between the two worlds and this book will teach you how to cross that hedge. While hedge riding, the hedge rider's consciousness travels to another place, the otherworld, which is also the realm of the collective unconscious. There the rider guided by his or her animal and spirit guides, encounters archetypal symbols and assimilates this knowledge to help guide her or him on their pathway. The hedge riding aspect of hedge witchery is perhaps the most difficult part of the hedge witch pathway. This book focuses on that aspect alone and is an experiential guide. If you want to learn more about Hedge Witchcraft, there is an accompanying book in this series, Pagans Portals • Hedge Witchcraft. Hedge Magic is to follow in a few months.

Customer Reviews

This slim volume serve as a great introduction to the history and methods of hedge riding, a form of spirit travel within the witchcraft folks traditions. Riding the hedge is often confused with astral travel and pathworking, but Saille puts the confusion to rest. Using clear examples and sharing from a deep well of personal experiences, Saille brings back this mysterious practice, making it relevant for modern Witches today.

It has enough information in this book to get you where you need to be. The book is very short and wish that it could have been longer with more input from what others have experienced. Blessed be!

It was a very good read! I enjoyed the sample journeys that are detailed as it helps to know what to expect

One of the two books of Pagan Portals...I have both and love them...what informative and educational little books...a must for all practitioners.

Great intro on the said topic. If you are already familiar with astral travel, some of it may sound familiar. Recommended.

I enjoyed Saille's explanation of hedge riding as well as her different additions to the practise. I found it a lot more informative than other books I have read on the same subject.

Intersting reading on another aspect of traditional witchcraft - though the series pagan Portals are a little brief for my liking, recommended for beginners.

wonderful, I keep reading it.
