Customer Reviews

The Michelin guide company does a great job most of the time and has always treated me well when going to a new place. This was the first Green book I have bought, and was a bit disappointed. I found the Ideas of activities and the descriptions of areas to be surface level. Directions and locations were not clear and the things that were interesting I could not find. The Red books put out by Michelin are wonderful and I will still use them any time I am traveling to a place they have one for. I will pass on Green books from here on out.

Great guide with 100 pages on Seoul and 15 on Busan. Highly recommended.
