This book is great. It was a required text for one of my pastoral counseling courses, but I will likely refer to it for a long time. Drs. Clinton and Hawkins are among my favorite sources for Christian/Biblical/Pastoral counseling information and this book is yet another source of their wealth of knowledge. Recommended!

This a book I had to purchase for a class, and it has fulfilled the need and it has been very informative to me about the subject matter. It is easy to use, and at the same time it is an interesting read.

Very simple and clear to understand. Very insightful.

Fast and the book arrived the way it was described.

Great book to have in your library as a counselor.

This book is laid out in a quick reference, easy to read format. It is easily consulted under alphabetical topics giving balanced clinical knowlege and biblical wisdom with refrences. every section suggests an approach, scriptures, prayer, and homework for the session. The counselor can readily glean the appropriate material.

This is a good topical guide to counseling with little other content.

I absolutely loved this book and all the books by Dr. Tim Clinton and Dr. Ron Hawkins. They both are great authors and share fundamental wisdom. The book explains how we can become effective Christian Counselor's and listen effectively. I thought this book covered all the issues we face in the world today and how to help those effected by these problems through Christian guidance. I would highly recommend the book and any books written by these authors. Thank you!
