"16 projects that evoke a similar feel to the cozy accessories seen on the Starz TV show. The majority are knit from bulky or superbulky yarn, so they're cozy and quick to knit." --Library Journal

A beautifully done book. A must have for the Outlander fan who knits. Particularly beautiful are the herb garden gauntlets, the rent shawl, the healer's hands gauntlets, the boar hunt capelet and both boot cuff patterns. I've made the Falling Leaves boot cuffs already. Great gift pattern because you could probably finish up one per evening of knitting. Very clear instructions. I also made one of the Herb Garden Gauntlets. Again great instructions in both chart form if you are a chart reader and in written instructions.

I love all things Celtic. I also love the Outlander series be in book form or dvd or sound track, I have purchased a few kits with the series items, but had to have this book also as it has more patterns. I do love to knit. The instructions are easy and the pictures are very clear. I will enjoy this book for a long time.

Very interesting, easy to follow. Size 19 needles are not my favorite but there were a few with a 10 1/2. That were easier.

Great pictures, but unclear directions. I tried unsuccessfully to make one of the so-called easy garments at least several times and using 2 different types of yarn. I am an experienced knitter and do know how to follow directions. I would not recommend this book to anyone.

My favorite knit book. Only a few are advanced, most are very easy.

These are beautiful, and the instructions are clear and concise.

Very good book for knitters. Wonderful patterns.

Lovely knit patterns
