Customer Reviews

The title of this book implies that the information it contains is applicable, or limited to, those of the Jewish faith. I discovered that not to be the case. Yes, the foundational beliefs and truths of the Jewish faith are described and explained - however - these same Articles are equally beneficial to Christians. With minor changes the book would also be useful to Muslims. Mr. Stein' s writing style is direct and uncomplicated which makes it perfect for all ages...and all faiths.

As a Christian I got this book to understand the basic Jewish beliefs and the base on which Christianity started. This book is well written and full of easy to understand information. One thing confused me with this book. It ended with The Lord's Prayer, which is from the New Testament and is given by Jesus. Is it also used in the Jewish faith?

This book is cut and dry but it covers the articles well. There is no dressing up or fancy words, just the honest believes of the Jewish faith. I found it highly educational

This was a good short overview of the Jewish principles that form Jewish faith. Just doesn't recognize differences between the different branches of Judaism, although that would need a lot more explanations.

An inspiring description of the 13 articles of faith. However, I'm fairly certain he used the Christian version of the Lord's Prayer.

Informative and increase respect for the jewish religion.

Interesting, clear and concise. I found it interesting in terms of confirming my research for my book Hold the Faith. Well done.
