Purchased this Livre Audio (French language audio book) as a gift for a Harry Potter fan taking HS French 3. The recordings are high quality with a native French speaker, so it makes following the familiar story easy. Because the story is familiar, you can perfect your ear and accent. If the mp3's are loaded onto an ipod, you can adjust the speed of the speech to make it easier to understand.

Great series to practice my French comprehension. I'll be sad when I'm finished with the series.

I was thrilled to find the entire Harry Potter series in French. I have to learn a language for my degree requirements, and while everyone SWEARS that Spanish is more helpful, I just never liked it much. French is much more "romantic" (but rather nasally, don't you think?). What better way to learn of Romance than through the words of J.K. Rowling? I can't wait to quote passages back to my Harry Potter-obsessed friends.

For those learning French, this is a wonderful addition to your language library. Like the English versions, the trials and tribulations of young people at school are the center of the story. It's a tale about learning new roles, new relationships, and about the world at large--however disguised by magic and fantasy--and has a unique charm. I found the vocabulary and sentence structure a little more challenging, but I noticed a similar development in the English versions. It's almost as though the author was writing for a specific child or children whose reading skills and maturity had progressed beyond that reflected in book one. Alternatively she herself might be just reaching her full stride as an author. Whatever the case, in French it translates to a marvelous progression of learning materials from the basics of book one to the more advanced level of this one.

What a fantastic book! I read them all in English, but wanted to challenge myself to read it in French. The pages were very thin, but that made the book smaller and easier to transport. The book arrived much faster than I expected it.

Excellent condition. Harry Potter in French, whats not to love?

My sister loves this HP book the best so I got it for her for Christmas. She loves it in French too! She keeps telling me the names and things that are changed when they're in French and it's quite funny. Thanks for the timely delivery?

Wonderful for Harry Potter fans who speak fluent French.
