500 Plates & Chargers: Innovative Expressions Of Function & Style (500 Series)

Synopsis

Plates and chargers can serve as more than just places to put your food: they can be glorious art to show off on a table, sideboard, or hutch. These 500 spectacular pieces chosen by esteemed juror Linda Arbuckle range from the utilitarian yet beautifully glazed plate to dramatically decorated work, and they're crafted from a remarkable variety of materials—including pristine porcelain and bold earthenware. Nick Joerling's stoneware is the perfect canvas for a design: vigorous brush strokes set in wax resist race across its attractive surface. Kelly McKibben's hand-built Going for a Stroll showcases delicately inlaid and silk-screened images. The stunning gallery provides a unique and wide-ranging snapshot of contemporary ceramic arts.

Customer Reviews

If you are an experienced potter, these books are great for new ideas. You know how to make what they are showing, and the ideas for altering your own work just flow naturally. If you are a new potter, you will see that there are hundreds of ways to embellish a simple plate that make them unique, and your very own. These books are inexpensive, and the photos are quite nice. Buy it.. Buy all of this series..

I bought this book as inspiration for a friend who is a sculptor (she works in the clay medium). The book is a beautiful book, so makes a lovely gift, and the platters in it are so amazing that it is also a wonderful inspiration for all artists. I love this series of books!!

Got this book when I first began taking pottery lessons. I love it and still refer to it whenever I'm looking for inspiration! I would recommend this book to beginners and experienced ceramists as well. G&P

Will gladly buy more books from this seller!Fast shipping and well packaged! I'm a happy with my 500 series! Got 9 so far! It's time to start reading to gain more knowledge!!I'm a happy camper! Beach, books, and coffee! Ciao!

I am a fan of Lark Books. They are doing a great service by publishing what is happening in the clay world to promote creativity in this venue.

Love the book, It came on time and it is brand new in a great condition. I will recommend Lark and will continue shopping from them.

Full of beautiful pottery and inspiring ideas

Wonderful photographs. VERY brief descriptions are given about the techniques used - so this is not a how-to book. However, it is rich in lovely design ideas and enjoyable to peruse.
