Customer Reviews

Brian Cook was the nephew of the late Harry Batsford, chairman of the family publishing firm from 1917 to 1952. He himself became chairman of the company in 1952. His design work, almost exclusively for Batsford, was pioneering and timeless.

I bought two of Brian Cook's Landscape books. His work is enchanting and I highly recommend if you like art and you like color and you like to see color used in interesting and surprising ways. I first was introduced to these books by Penelope Keith in her delightful series The Hidden Villages of England.

What wonderful illustrations which capture the romance of England.

Wbeautiful illustrations throughout.

I love the Brian Cook art. He is different and I love his color pallett. This book is a nice edition to my book collection.

Had to have it after watching Penelope Keith's Hidden Villages on Acorn TV.

This is a gift for a friend. Smaller size than I expected,

Very pleased. Exceeded my expectations.

Great
