Jonah And The Big Fish

Synopsis

What happens when you disobey God? Author Susan Collins Thoms and illustrator Naoko Stoop answer the question in the most inviting, child-friendly retelling of Jonah and the Big Fish ever created. This lush edition of the classic Biblical story captures the tale's watery world in jewel-toned illustrations by Stoop, who paints her incredible images directly on wood planks—each chosen specifically for its unique character. Perfect for parents and children to share, it makes a beautiful companion to our All Creatures Great and Small and Noah's Ark.

Susan Collins Thoms is the author of Cesar Takes a Break, The Twelve Days of Christmas in Michigan, and Noah's Ark (all Sterling). She lives in Grand Rapids, MI, with her husband, three children, two cats, one parakeet, one lizard, and one hermit crab. Illustrator Naoko Stoop now lives in Brooklyn, NY, but was born and grew up in Japan. She is a self-taught artist who generally paints on brown paper bags and wood scraps. She sells her work in her Etsy shop (etsy.com/shop/naokosstoop) and also exhibits in several galleries. Naoko illustrated a board book edition of All Creatures Great and Small for Sterling, as well as Noah's Ark, and is the author/illustrator of Red Knit Cap Girl (Little Brown, 2012). Read Naoko's blog (naokosstoop.blogspot.com), check out her collection online (brownpaperbagcollection.com/page/cover.php), and follow her on Twitter @naokosstoop.

I purchased this for my 3 year old unsure about it since it's a board book. The story line gives the perfect amount of detail without being too overwhelming. The illustrations are wonderful. After reading a few times my child can tell you the story of Jonah and the whale. This book is definitely a must buy! I hope the author adds more biblical books!

My 2 yr old loves this book, especially when I make the sound effect noises on the different pages. It's a winner! And a good, simple telling of the story.

Love the simplicity of this version of Jonah and the Whale. Perfect for Toddler and preschool age!

Nice book!

bought the toy Jonah & Whale toy to go with this book!!! Love it

Bought for ages 2-5 class at church and the kids love it

Nicely told story for little ones with beautiful illustrations. We have this board book for our family and I will be buying it again for gifts!

Great read aloud book with lots of fun sounds and charming illustrations!
