Such a great concept. My daughter shelved it for the time being as she is not there yet, but I'm keeping it. When the Lord calls she will read it.

Fabulous book! Read it before giving to my 12 year old daughter (13 soon). Some material is more for high school but is written appropriately so she will still relate. Book is filled with fabulous lessons and reminders even for parents. Hope my daughter never forgets she can ALWAYS lean on God.

I was hoping this would be in the same format as the Praying Parents or Praying Spouse books -- One that my grandson could just pick up, open it and read a prayer. This is more of a reflection/workbook type of book. He did not find it appealing.

My 14 year old loves this book. She read it in a Bible Study group at church. Thankful for great resources like this to encourage my daughters. This even encouraged me to pull out my old books--Power of a Praying Parent and Wife.

My 2 teenager kids don't have a religious education and I bought this book not knowing what to expect. We started reading it, one chapter per evening and talking about each theme, it open, in a natural way a door to talk about religion, beliefs and most importantly attitudes toward the situations they face at school and with friends, and the importance of values, introspection and faith.Great book, great guide, even if your family is not actively involved in religion.

Brought it for my teen daughter she enjoys reading it

I bought this as a gift. I think they will love it

Such an awesome book! Bought it as a 16th birthday gift. Every teen should read this!
