Author Ju Brown holds a PhD in Chinese Literature and Languages, and has spent over 12 years working and studying in China, Hong Kong, and Taiwan. She and her husband John are co-authors of China, Japan, Korea Culture and Customs, and both work together on East Asia related publications. They also own and operate mycjk.com, a website dedicated to East Asia culture and languages

Book came in perfect condition, I'm halfway through it, and i'm learning a lot. I suggest it if your planning a trip to Asia, studying about Asia, or just curious.

Great read, provides a real world present day knowledge of Eas Asia, from a hands on perspective of a person who has lived there, without any political agenda. This book is perfect for those yearning for more indepth knowledge of what East Asis is really like and how it got to be this way, as well as for those planning to travel to the region. Finally, a book that can serve as a handy reference and a guide that is an easy and enjoyable read that will keep you turning pages. Highly recommended.
