Preacher With A Gun (Jubilee Book 1)

PREACHER WITH A GUN

Brad Dennison

JUBILEE

Synopsis

The first in a companion series to the McCabes. When marshal Vic Falcone takes a bullet, he calls on the town preacher Tom McCabe to strap on a gun and wear the badge. The man who shot the marshal is in the town jail and awaiting trial, and the man's outlaw brother is out there somewhere, intending to free him. A lot for McCabe to handle, but even though he's a preacher, he's also the nephew of the gunfighter Johnny McCabe.

Customer Reviews

I should state I have purchased and read all of the McCabe novels in order and enjoyed them. This novel is lacking in plot and character development. The protagonist, Tom McCabe while much like Glen Ford's character in Heaven with a Gun, does not come across as either a minister or a gunfighter. Tom's character did not hold my interest and It was difficult to finish this novel to find his fate. While we have become used to repetition in Mr. Dennison's novels this is worse than his other novels where the plot and the characters outways the repetitiveness. Frankly if there are additional novels in this series I would be hard pressed to read them. Hopefully Mr. Dennison will continue the McCabe series.

Giving a 5 star rating for one of Brad Dennison's books has become the norm. He constantly excels with his characters and their enteraction with each other, and his stories. Western stories are at the top of the list of my reading material right now. I am hooked. I have about a half dozen western writers I never fail to read as fast as they publish their books. Brad Dennison is one of the top three. All Western book lovers and good story lovers need to get this book. ENJOY Lavonne Jones

Really enjoyed this book. It really lets you know how some people have to adjust to a new way of life, especially the preacher, who had to decide what to do about his life. He started out as a preacher, but due to extreme circumstances, he had to kill a man in order to protect his family. This in turn led him to realize that he had to do a turn around in his life. He realized that he was more cut out to be a lawman, taking on the job of marshal of the town. Because of this his wife left him and he was left with his young daughter to raise on his own. A good read all around!

This is a long awaited book about the McCabes. Tom McCabe is a Preacher in a little community called Jubilee, when trouble breaks out in the Second Chance Saloon. The story starts out slowly, and before you know it you are involved in the shooting in the Saloon. Great book!

Right when I made the comment on the last book by Brad Dennison that it would start to get hard to come up with a good story line so far into a series, you blow it out of the water. This is the second best book of the McCabe series. Story line, characters, sub-plots, series connecting!! This was the hardest book to put down for the night of them all. I am going to now start the last on the McCabe series and hope the next book in the Preacher series comes out soon. Thank you for the entertainment!!

Preacher with a gun is another hit by Brad. While reading this story I kept wondering, what is the Preacher going to do. Excellent story of a man torn between two factions and a realization of where is real world is.One down side of this book, inherent in all of Brads writing, is the anguish they put me through. An example is "Preacher with a Gun",I had to set aside everything else when reading because I could not put it down. A read page turner.

The storyline in this book was excellent. It was nice to read about another McCabe. If you are to read this book you will need to read the 5 book McCabe series to familiarize yourself with all the characters first. You will not be disappointed. I cannot wait for the next book in the Preacher With A Gun (Jubilee series #2).

I have excitement reading this McCabe series. I just love these gunhawks! They are warm and real, but tough as nails when needed to be! Looking forward to next book!
