Synopsis

Ready to take your first RV trip? Then you must know these 72 RV camping secrets before you even get behind the wheel of your motorhome. Discover...
* How many batteries you should have in your RV?
* What you should take - and what you should leave at home.
* Do you really need roof mounted storage pods and other extra carrying devices (the surprising answer)?
* Why it's not worth it to carry firewood on your trip (and what to do instead).
* How to protect your RV's plumbing when you connect to any water source.
* How to keep away spiders from your water heater and fridge.
* An easy way to keep the engine from overheating when you run your roof air conditioner.
* Which type of GPS should you use (the wrong type may put you in danger)?
* The right way to seal water leaks around windows and on rubber roofs.
* No-brainer way to keep your pans from turning black when you cook over an open fire....and much, much more!
So scroll back up and start discovering these 72 practical RV camping tips to make your first trip a breeze.

Customer Reviews

I took lots of notes when reading in preparing for my first adventure. No fluff. Just good information and the "why's of the suggestions when not obvious. Good reference. Glad I bought the book at the bargain price. Thanks.

Was nothing special.

We've read and re-read the helpful tips in this publication, and USED the tips too!

ok

What's not to love about FREE?! Thanks!

This helps in determining the great essentials needed for camping in your rv.a great read, I recommend to check this book out,

I did not care for this book, it was more or less common since.

Offers some good hints but definitely for beginners!! Easy read so it was worth the time. We just went from a fith wheel to an RV
